React:

- When you hear a message like this that presents an ambitious vision for giving the church away? What do you feel? Why?

- Derek defined the locals mentioned in Acts 1:8 as follows:
  - Jerusalem: Our home turf where people are just like us
  - Judea: The place that's close to home, but not quite home.
  - Samaria: Geographically near but culturally far away
  - Ends of the Earth: Geographically and Culturally far away

Out of the four, which does Grace do the best job of reaching? The worst? Why?

Read:

Read 1 Corinthians 9:19-23. What would it look like for a local church congregation to commit to being "all things for all people"? What are the pitfalls risked with such an endeavor? What are the potential payoffs?
